Best Days Perspective

From Pastor Randy Tolleson:

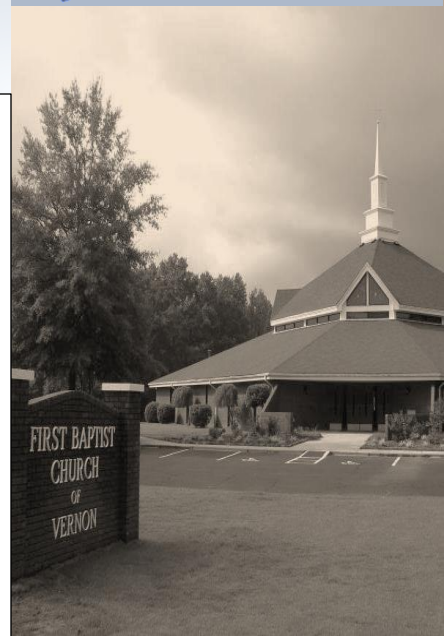

We all want to have success in our personal accomplishments, families, careers & the organizations that we belong to like our churches. What we are reminded of often is that it takes hard work to see these things surpass mediocrity. Some people give up along the way because it's just too hard. They take the easy way out on their commitments. They don't keep their word. They don't contribute. They still want the benefits of success but not at the expense of the work. Galatians 6:9 calls us to keep doing "good" & we will reap the reward of our efforts. It's a simple principle that we can bank on; if you invest good, in due season you will reap good. Don't pick your fruit before it ripens; stay with it; let it mature & the result will be really good! #liveyourbestdays
